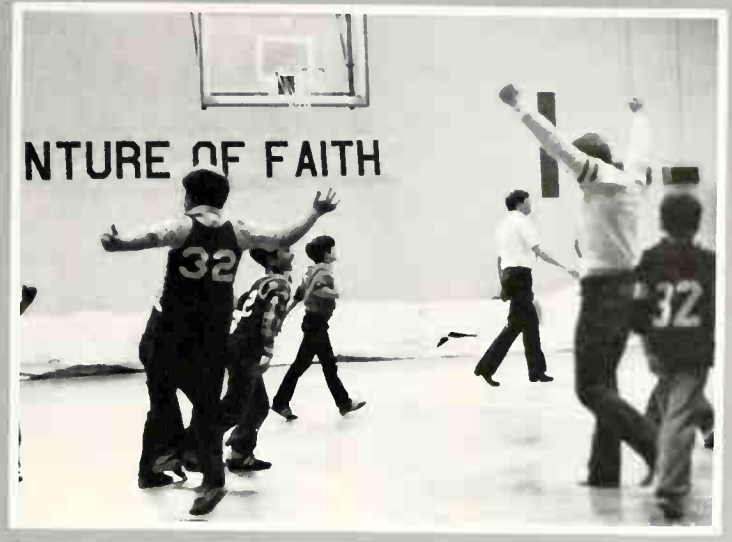
Elementary Sports



This year Elementary Sports played soccer and basketball. The third, fourth, fifth, and sixth graders have the following names for their teams: the Globe Trotters, with Marvin Kirk and Bobby Evans as coaches, the 76er's with Rex Keaton, Kevin Tharp, and Greg Felty as coaches, the Lakers with Steve Smith, Mark Phillips, and Guy Fox as coaches, and the Celtics with Jay James, Scott Karkosky, and Perry Allen as their coaches.

Junior High Sports

The Junior High girl's volleyball team had a great season this year. Thirteen girls came out, and they ended up with five wins and two loses. They were under the leadership of Coach Detweiler and captain Tammy Christoff. The team has made several major improvements this year, and during the course of the season grew greatly in skills, ability, and success.

There were a total of twenty-three boys who came out for the Junior High soccer team this year. The team was a little short on experience; however, leadership from the eighth graders, David Hobbs, captain, Dan Koenig and Tyler Hufhand gave them strength in aggressiveness. The record was three losses and three wins. Each game was hard fought and no game was handed to the opponent. The experience gained will boost next year's Junior and Senior High teams.

Seniors Of 1981

Class Verse: Psalm 133:1
Behold, how good and how pleasant it is, for brethren to dwell together in unity.

Working together, achieving new goals, having school spirit, sharing ideas, fellowshiping one with another, working hard and doing their best is a variety of things that this year's seniors did to make their last year together special. The class worked not only on growing closer to each other, but growing closer to the Lord. The class of 1981 had one important goal which was carried throughout the year. This goal was to become one and not be separate individuals. Unity is what was developed and nothing can ever take that away.

"Where He Leads"

The play this year was "In His Steps", by Hartzell Spence. It is the story of William Spence, (played by John Koenig), preacher in 1910, his wife Hope, (played by Jackie Bassamer), their two children Eileen, (played by Susie Wright), and Hartzell, (played by Mark Baugh). The Lord calls him to pastor a church where there are many problems such as racial prejudice, a fallen down parsonage, a choir with long, unchanging membership, and many members that want to control the church by the pursestrings. They go through many trials; they pray and wait. At the end, the pastor has seen the new church built and the problems resolved. The question is, where the Lord will lead him next.

Now ladies, arguing won't solve anyting.

Honest Louise, if you'd only listen!
